Pregnancy Counseling

April 7 & 8, 2010
(Wednesday & Thursday)

Funded in part by a grant from
The California Wellness Foundation

Co-sponsored by Center for Health Training, Inc.
under Grant #FPTPA090026-30-00

California Family
Health Council, Inc.

About the Course

When confronted with the result of her pregnancy test, a woman is at a crossroads. Pregnant or not, her decision about what to do next can be one of the most personal and challenging decisions of her life.

Emphasizing the importance of providing quality care to women, this workshop will guide participants through State and Federal requirements for providing pregnancy options counseling. It will help participants identify their personal values and beliefs, their role as a pregnancy counselor, and how to weave together a thoughtful and effective pregnancy counseling session.

Objectives

At the end of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- ▶ Discuss the role of a pregnancy counselor.
- ▶ Assess personal opinions and beliefs concerning pregnancy options and decisions.
- ▶ Describe to clients key elements of prenatal care, adoption and abortion.
- ▶ Identify Federal and State guidelines for conducting a pregnancy counseling session.
- ▶ Conduct an effective, unbiased and non-coercive pregnancy counseling session.

Audience

This workshop is designed for any family planning clinic or program staff responsible for working with clients:

- ▶ Nurse Practitioners
- ▶ Nurses (LVNs & RNs)
- ▶ Community Health Workers
- ▶ Medical Assistants
- ▶ Health Educators
- ▶ Other interested program staff
